World Communications Day – Sunday, May 16, 2010

Today Catholics are invited to reflect upon the media of social communication (films, radio, television, newspapers, audiovisuals) and how these influence our lives.

The media can promote values that lead to a more fully human society. The Church's ministry is twofold. The media can be used to help promote the gospel. At the same time, as receivers of the materials presented by the media, the faithful have a duty to support and promote worthwhile presentations on media and reject those which promote values contrary to spiritual growth.

Is God fed up with the World?

The First [Old] Testament contains countless stories and passages providing modern readers with great beauty and comfort. But for every story that is beautiful there is another that is horrendous. For every verse that brings comfort, another disturbs and confuses. This confusion is understandable, given the centuries that separate our culture from that of the Israelite people of the First Testament.

Israel's Story: Part One, our bible study program beginning May 17th, guides readers through this world—from the creation stories in Genesis to the Israelites' captivity in Egypt, from King David to the prophets. By introducing us to the people and events of the First Testament, it leads us to a marvelous discovery: The God who was present and active in ancient Israel is the same God who continues to call us into a covenantal relationship.

Answer to the Question: Never!

Join us for bible study beginning May 17

At 7 pm in the Parish Hall. All welcome.

For information phone the parish office: 252-1137

Next Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost!

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

MAY 16, 2010

Scripture Note:

The reading from Acts speaks of the ascension of Jesus. It also shows how Jesus, now in the glorious presence of his Father, continues to act through the Holy Spirit and through his followers.

Lift up your hearts

The day of the Lord's triumphant return to his Father is not a day for narrowness or sadness.

Rather, it is a day for openness and joy.

Therefore, let us lift up our hearts.

Let us raise up your minds.

Let our spirits soar and be free.

For sin and evil and death have been overcome.

We know nothing of the mystery of the beyond.

All we have is his word: "Where I am, you too will be."

Lord, you have kindled in our hearts the hope of eternal life.

Guard this hope with your grace, and bring it to fulfillment in the kingdom of heaven.

Ordination: Please remember Deacon Peter, of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter in your prayers. He is to be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, May 22, 2010. Also, Mr. Nathan Siray will be ordained to the diaconate on May 18, 2010.

Go On! The Work Must Go On!

"Why are you standing here looking at the sky? It is as if they were being urged: Go on! The work must go on.

The Ascension does not mark the end of Jesus' presence and work among us. Rather, it marks the beginning of a new presence and the continuation of his mission through his new body, The Church, especially you and me. It is not just a focus on what the Lord is doing and where he is going too, but a reminder of where we are going and what we are commissioned to do. When people see our lives, can they sense something of his presence?
